CHARITY BALL EXECUTIVE BOARD AND PATRONESSES ARE SELECTED

HE charity ball in all cities is made one of the greatest social events of the season; its object heing to relieve dire necessity of brothers and sisters of humanity. The being to relieve dire necessity of brothers and sisters of humanity. The El Paso Charity association has also made its yearly ball on Thanksgiving eve one of the sucial events of the year and the invitations and tickets to it were issued on Priday. The association members hope to help make this year's ball as great if not a greater success, than those given before. The receipts from the ball tickets comprise the largest one revenue upon which they depend to feed many hungry persons and to give shelter to many without a home. Several American families in addition to those already reported, are now receiving care and assistance from the association.

So for the women on the different committees have met with success. The merchants of the city have domated everything for usc.

The executive hoard is composed of the following women. Mrs. Marie Loomis, president; Mrs. C. H. Baum, accord vice president; Mrs. Cityde Harle, recording secretary, Mrs. Clyde Harle, recording secretary; Mrs. Glyde Harle, Texasurer; Mrs. Inving McNeil, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Glyde Harle, Texasurer; J. B. Watson, W. R. Burges, W. C. Davis, James A. Diek, W. L. Bowerth, J. C. Lackland, A. M. Loomis, Josephine Morfit, J. G. Mc-Nary, J. H. Nations, E. W. S. Neff, J. A. Rawlings, W. W. Rose, Horace B. Stevens, Charles Sevens, U. S. Stewart, H. D. Slater, J. B. Watson, Van C. Wilson, The patronesses for the ball will be: Mesdames Claiborne Adams, S. Aronstein, Charles N. Barney, L. E. Booker, A. P. Coles, Winchester Cooley, Z. L. Cobb, William F. Charles, Lange, Hallie Irvin and Else Kohlberg has been assisted by the press of the diff.

The press committee, of which Mrs. U. S. Stewart is chalrman, assisted by Meddames Charles Loom the city.

The music committee, of which Mrs.
U. S. Stewart is chairman, assisted by Mesdames Charles Loomis, Vance
Stewart and Josephine Nations Morfit, has been assisted by the Musicians has been assisted by the Musicians union.

Messrs 8 G. Humphrey and Maurice A. Schening, of the Paso del Norte hotel, have donated the use of the hotel to the place committee, composed of Mesdames W. C. Davis, chairman, and Z. T. White, W. L. Tooley, J. O. Crockett, Henry Beach, Van C. Wilson, W. B. Bull, Clarence Pickrell. The floral houses have presented many flowers for the decoration of the dining room. The refreshment committee, of which Mrs. H. W. Broaddus is chairman, assisted by Mesdames Charles Pomercy, W. L. Gaines, Will Cromble, J. A. Dick, Otis Coles, W. Cooley, Frank Ainsa, Josephine Nations Morfit, J. H. Nations, A. F. Kerr, Chae Leavell, Dan White, J. U. Sweeney, Claiborne Adams, Charles Davis, B. M. Worsham, F. J. Feldman, S. G. Humphries, H. C. Ferris, Geo. B. LeBaron, Henry Piaff, F. L. Torres and H. S. Potter, raport generous donations by the merchants.

The punch committee is composed of Mesdames H. C. Myles, chairman, assisted by J. A. Rawlings, W. Cooley, Clyde Harle and will see that all srescreed.

Clyde Harle and will see that all are served.

The invitations printed under the direction of Mrs. John L. Dyer, have been extended to all those whose names have been sent in to the conmittee, but if any have been overlooked they can get one by applying to Mrs. J. G. McNary or purchase them at the door on the night of the ball. All maney for the tickets is to be sent to the time of the ball. Mrs. W. R. Brown, whose address ap-pears on the invitation.

A floor committee will be appointed

All patronesses are expected to stand according to the alphabetical arrangement of their names. The receiving line will stand at the left of the dining room in the main lobby, and guests will enter at the San Antonio street door and take the stairs to the mezzanine floor, where they will be shown to dressing rooms. The refreshments will be served in the main dining

The committee on cutertainment, which is a new one with this ball, will pay special attention to the strangers, and each member of the board of directors will wear a red rosetic so that they may be distinguished by the strangers who may feel at liberty to address them.

A very large crowd attended the dance at the Country club Saturday night. Those present were: Colonel Joseph Gerrard, Maj. and Mrs. J. S. Winn, Maj. and Mrs. Clark, Capt. and Mrs. C. Harvey, Capt. and Mrs. Davidson, Lieut. and Mrs. S. Meyer, Dr. Warren Bean, Dr. J. Sherwood, Dr. and Mrs. Chappell, Lieut. and Mrs. Coppock. Lieut. and Mrs. Smalley, Lieut. W. R. Smith, Lieut. and Mrs. Smalley, Lieut. S. B. Smith, Lieut. wm Meade, Lieuts. Andrews, Neal and Finch; Mesdames and Mezers Vance Stewart. J. A. Happer, Chas. Pomeroy, F. L. Torres, R. R. Kyie, J. J. Pruett, Modonald, Bert Semple, Harry Harding, Will Eace, W. L. Gaines, Alves Dixon, Walter Davis, W. H. Humphries, C. Adams, J. F. Will.

Conducted by MISS HALLIE IRVIN Telephones 2020 or 2040, day; and 345, night

llams, Mesdames E. Walter Arneld, C. M. Buckler, Annabelle Rohrabacher, Gerturde Ledhetter, W. S. Tilton, Hugh White, L. G. Witherspoon, Bessie Fimp, T. R. Hasam, James Marr, Will McAfee, T. M. Wingo, Edna May Sinks, C. W. Kellorg, Curry, H. C. Myles, Misses Anne Lee Gaines, Virghia Semple, Elizabeth Cunningham, Ruby Stone, Irah Cool, Hattie Ellis, Marion Young, Olive Davis, E. Hudson, Luellle Daniels, Anna Shelton, Reba Elliott, Anne Lee Rick, Maybelle Mason, Messics, senator Tom Catron, of New Mexico; attorney general F. W. Clancy, W. H. Austin, Eugene Fox, Chas, Bassett, Dr. Chas, Bull, R. George Flong, W. A. Townsend, G. H. Pound, Tom Newman, Rob't Martin, Rob't Holliday, Page Kemp, A. L. Hartis, James Alves, Ted Davis, O. M. McKnight, James Curtis, Win, Ford, Chas, Morris, Dexter Niapel, Gus Buckler, G. Ward, Hamilton Pratt, Carl Thomas, A. L. Cox, H. A. Owsley. Hams, Mesdames E. Walter Arnold, C.

The Gimlet club entertained on Friday night with a dance at the Knights of Columbus hall. Good music was furnished for the dancing and punch was served. About 50 couples enjoyed

Parties

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Brack entertained in Friday night with a delightful chil-iren's party in honor of their niece, bigall Robles, of Riverside, Calif. The house was pretily decorated in pink and white chrysanihemums and ivy. Many games were played and dancing was in order the latter part of the evening. Refreshments of sandwiches, e cream, cake and candles were served fer the games, and punch was served during the dancing

Dr. and Mrs. Breck were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Frances Robies, mother of Mrs. Breck, and Miss Mary Canon. Those present were: Misses Vilas Simmons, Mary and Ruth Dewey. Katherine Foster Ruth Morris, Jane Burges, Marion Howe, Jean Gilchrist, Dorothy. Vollertsen, imogene Leavell, Ella Peticolas, Alzena, Bertram and Kathleen Orndorff, Minda Laskin, Birdle Krupp, Paula Krupp, Eva Stevenson, Vonia Bray, Margaret Stevenson, Vonia Bray, Margaret Stevens, Messrs, Alfred Whitmer, Harland and Cliford Irvin, Frances and Morgan Broaddus, Bruce Bevan, Hubert Sharp, Charles Overstreet, Mark Miller, Leonard Goodman, Byrl Hurdlick, Soille and Mannie Stollaroff, Charles Kawkinson, Fred Humphries, Paul Humphries, Albert Baldwin, W. M. Pitcolas, Jr., Bernard Krupp, Carroll and Philip Stevens, Merick and Louis William Breck. Dr. and Mrs. Breck were assisted in

Since the beautiful debut party given to Miss Emily Wyndham Kemp by Mrand Mrs. J. F. Williams, it is said four other young women will make their debut in E. Paso society during the winter. It is rumored that two of these young women are sisters. One of the parties will probably not be given until some time in February as the fond parents of this pretty girl are waiting for the completion of a handsome home in Sunset Heights in which they can entertain for their daughter. they can entertain for their daughter

Women's Organizations

ciety of the Highland Park Methodist church met and elected the following officers for the year; president, Mrs. C. F. Lee; first vice president, Mrs. Belie Hargrove; second vice president. Mrs. Gescond vice president. Mrs. Gardner; fourth vice president, Mrs. Geo. W. Sharp; treasurer, Mrs. Belie Hargrove; corresponding secretary, Mrs. I. C. Ruby; agent for Mission Voice, Mrs. A. F. Lee. The society was well attended and six new names added to the roll. The society will meet Monday at 3 p. m. for a devotional meeting at the church.

The Sunshine Workers met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hirt, on Upson avenue. There were 12 present and dolls were dressed for the Sunshine society at headquarters in New York city. There will be a doll sale in New York and the dolls dressed Friday will be sent to the sale. Some of the dolls dressed on Friday represented the children of the Sunshine nursery in this city; others represented society women and one Mcxican doll was dressed, and one ittle girl and boy. After the work, refreshments of pineapple sherbet and cakes were served by the hostess. Mrs. Hirt's home was decorated in white chrysanthemums and ferns for the occusion. The next meeting of the society will be held on December 5, at the hotel Sheldon, when the members will be the guests of Mrs. * * *

About El Pasoans

Miss Lemire Nebeker is ill at the Cards

Mrs. K. D. Franklin entertained on Saturday afternoon on the meazanine floor of the Hotel Paso del Norte with a bridge party in honor of her niece, Miss Mary Morgan. The party was delightful in all appointments. Red chrysanthemums were the attractive desorations used and two courses of refreshments were served at the small tables.

The first prize, a cut glass vase, was won by Mrs. James Vance, the second prize, a mahogony tray with silver handle, was won by Miss Myra Prater; the third prize, a madera hand em-broidered towel, was won by Mrs. C. E. Kelly, while the consolation, three Ma-dera handkerchiefs, fell to Mrs. Chas.

The guests invited were: Meadames E. M. Bell, W. D. Wise, U. S. Stewart, H. Carpenfer, M. Wagner, Alves Dixon, R. Y. Anderson, W. L. Foxworth, J. L. Dyer, G. F. Hawks, O. H. Baum, Edgar Fewel, Helen Roberts, J. D. Mfyfield, A. G. Ellis, Jos. U. Sweeney, C. S. Mc-Kinney, H. T. Safford, C. L. Vowell, Pelham Winter, J. H. Hurxthal, James Crawford, Locke Tueker, Battelle White, Frank Turner, W. H. Loretz, John Grant, J. B. DuBose, Vaud Cumming, S. J. Fennell, F. Kimbell, R. B. Alves, E. E. Windsor, D. B. Smith, W. M. Peticolas, Eugene Mitchell, W. C. Kluttz, Peyton F. Edwards, W. E. Miller, H. R. Gamble, J. B. Gray, A. H. M. Peticolas, Eugene Mitchell, W. C. Kluttz, Peyton F. Edwards, W. E. Miller, H. R. Gamble, J. B. Gray, A. H. Butler, J. H. Harper, W. A. White, Van C. Wilson, H. W. Broaddus, J. D. Hughes, Will Owen, Winston Pettus, James Vance, C. Austrand, A. W. Foster, R. Kyle, J. Lorentzen, H. Greer, J. W. McConneil, W. Robertson, W. S. Tilton, C. Vollertsen, Benj. Sherrod, F. Well, J. Steiner, H. Finley, E. H. Irvin, W. W. Turney, J. A. Dick, V. P. Safford, E. Cyrus, Kenneth Oliver, W. A. Hawkins, Lewis Wright, B. M. Worsham, Walter Irwin, J. A. Buckles, Chas. Loomis, N. Ferguson, W. R. McKenna, A. Valdespino, L. J. Gilchrist, Chas. Davis, Lamar Davis, F. P. Miller, Francis Moore, C. R. Morehead, J. H. Nations, Josephine Nations Morfit, A. B. Fall, M. Everhart, Misses Jouett Fall, Mary Holman, A. Swett, Myra Prater, Katherine Gorbitt, Josephine Wooten, Jane Christy, Madge Steele, Hallie Irvin, Anne Hughes, May Anderson, Anna Washlurn, Evelyn Logan, Alma Jones, Monica Gallagher, Maybelle and Pauline Bryan, Lemire Nebaker, Olive Laurie.

Church Affairs

young people of Trinity Meth-The young people of Trinity Methodist church, who are members of the mission study class, met on Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Hoary. "Mexico" is being studied and there were about 30 present. The interesting study of the land and the people was led by Harry Henderson. Miss Lilla Thomas is the president of the soulety. the society. Refreshments were served

Dr. and Mrs. G. N. Thomas entertained the Sunday school board of the First Methodist church recently with a turkey dinner. The house was decorated in chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Music was enjoyed during the evening. Plans for Sunday school work were discussed. There were about 20 guests present.

Mrs. E. E. Nold was hostess on Friday afternoon of the aid society of the First Methodist church at her home. 2526 East Boulevard. Mrs. Nold's home was decorated in autumn leaves.

The East El Paso Altar society of the Guardian Angel church will enter-tain with a 'tea' at the Knights of Columbus hall on Friday afternoon at 2:30 oelock.

Dinners and Luncheons

dinner at the Country clab Saturday night. Their guests were Capt. and Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Gertrude Ledbet-ter and H. A. Owsley. The table was decorated in American beauty roses and the flowers were given as souven-

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dudley entertained at dinner at the Country club on Saturday night. The table was shaded in pink candle shades. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ferris.

F. W. Beall entertained on Saturday night at the Country club at din-ner. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pruett and Miss Olive Davis.

Weddings

Miss Lupe Lujan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lujan, of this city, will be married during the week to W. G. Lopixx, 5t., of Dalins. They will be married in the Catholic church of Dallas and will make that city their

Out Of Town Visitors

Mrs. L. H. Ashbury, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting Mrs. E. M. Lawrence, of 3327 Montana street.

China painting, china firing, lessons

Married Life's Troubles Helen Invites a Friend to Dinner, Scorns a Taxi and is Sorry For It, By Mabel Herbert Urner

HE rain was coming down in sheets, and the wind almost tore the umbrella from Helen's grasp.

"Oh, this is dreadfull" as she tepped in a swirling puddle, splashing the water up over her shoes. "I suppose we should have taken a taxl." "If only it doesn't spot this suit," omplained Louise, holding her cling-Ing skirt above ber ankles.

They had reached the corner now, but there was no car in sight.

"Let's stand under here," running to a sheltered doorway. "Oh, I hope it won't hurt your suit," apologetically, as Louise resentfully shook her wet

It seemed fully ten minutes before a car appeared—an embarrassing awk-ward 10 minutes for Helen, who felt responsible for this drenching, for she had stopped by to ask Louise for dis-ner, as Warren had phoned he could not get home and she hated to dine

Louise Carson, who lived at a "wom-an's hotel," always welcomed a dinner invitation—even one that came at the last moment.

But as they left the hotel together, the rain that had threatened all day began in carnest. Perfunctorlly Helen suggested a taxl, but with such evi-dent reluctance that Louise murmured a polite, "Oh, we can just as well take Before they reached the car line the rain was coming down in torrents.

"I'm afraid it's crowded," exclaimed helen, as they now ran out to signal the approaching car. the approaching car.

The motorman, ignoring their signals, drove by without stopping, the car wheels splashing them with water from the rain filled tracks.

"Oh, that makes me furious!"

"Well, there's ne use standing out here," and Louise started back to the here," and Louise started back to the doorway.

In the Car.

The next car was just as crowded, but the motorman condescended to step, and they squeezed their way through the wet, ill-smelling crowd.

"We shouldn't have taken this," complained Louise crossly. "for to be crimbed against wet overcoats and dripping umbrellas was even more damaging to one's clothes and temper than standing in the rain.

When they left the car they had to step out into a pool of water and almost wade neroes the street.

"Oh, this is awful," said Helen. "Why didn't I get a taxi."

"Yes, a taxi would be cheaper than ruining our clothes," admitted Louise inagraciously, now piantly out of humor.

or.

There was a sudden thundering crash, a streak of lightning—then a blinding sheet of tolm.

Helen's thin silk waterella was not proof against this downpour, and she felt the water trickling through it. She felt too the steady stream which pourse from a point of Louise's umbrella over her shoulder, but by this time she was too wet and too desperne she was too wet and too desperthe sile wis too wet and too desper-te to care.

Silently, resentfully, miserably, they plashed through this torrent. The treets were descried. Every one ex-ept themselves had sought shelter.

"Getting a little damp, girls?" called solitary man, who ran by with low-red umbrella.

feel indigment. At length the two globe lights before the spertment shome in a rellowish four through the rain. The elevator boy looked mildly astonished as they entered, drenched and drip-

The feather on Louise's hat was reduced to a defected wisp, and her blue cloth suit was soaking to the kness.

Home at Last. Nors opened the door for them with a cry of dismay,

"Put these umbrellas in the bath tub. Nort. And don't serve dinner until quarter after. We've got to get out of these things."

Helen led the way to her dressing room and switched on the lights. "Now let me have your coat," taking a hanger from her wardrobe, "and take your skirt off. I'll have Nora hang that in the kitchen."

But Louise's blue serge coat had faded through the lining on to her silk waist. There were blue smudges on the shoulder and sleeve.

"Take it off quick—I'll put it right to soak in cold water. It's all my fault. Oh, I can't tell you how sorry I am!"

fault. Oh. I can't tell you how sorry I am!"

If Helen hoped that Louise would comfort her with any protestations that it was "all right" she was dispepointed, for Louise was anxiously examining the stained sleeve.

'And you must take off those wet shees and stockings," warned Helen, "or you'll have a fearful cold. Here's a pair of stockings, but I'm afraid you can't wear my shees." Then with a sudden inspiration. "Oh, would you mind Warren's house slippers*-just until yours dry"

"Let me try your bedroom slippers."

"Let me try your bedroom slippers," flushed Louise resentfully. "They're loose—I can certainly wear them." "Why, yes, of course," hastily producing a pair of absurdly small pink satin quilted slippers.

"It's because my feet are damp and swollen," frowned Louise, as she tried in vain to get them on.

She was so plainly annoyed that Helen, when she brought out a pair of Warren's slippers, laughed apologetically. "These will be miles too big—but China painting, china firing, lessons and supplies reasonable; orders taken leit Brown, ph. 6388.—Advertisement. Helen had not thought of her own, but

"Yes, in just a minute." Then, turning to Louise. "Now what shall I give you to nut on? Oh, wait—I ve just the thing." taking out a pale rose silk negligee. "It's the one I got in Paris
—I haven't worn it set."

At Dinner.

Louise alipped it on, admiring the effect in the mirror.

"You'll have to held it up. It's awfully long—I haven't had time to shorten it. Now we must go in to dinner or Nora will be furious."

As they went into the dining room. Louise, her feet clumey in Warren's slippers, stepped on the gown with a sound of ripping lace. And before the dinner was over she had swept the long lace-winged aboves over the butter, and had dropped samething on the front. But Helen pretended not to notice

The skirt had dried on the radiator

The skirt had dried on the raunton and Nora had pressed it to look like new. Almost all of the stain had come out of the shirtwaist, and Holen berself broned it dry. Then she curled the bedraggled feather with the back of a paper cutter.

If was after 10 before Louise got out of Helen's negligee and into her own clothes.

Warren Gets a Taxl.

When she came back into the front room, drawing on her gloves, Warren rose quickly and went over to the rese quickly and went over to the phone.

"Hello! Get me a taxi, will you," he ordered of the hallboy. "Yes, right away."

Was it still raining? Helen was almost certain that it had cleared off, but now she purposely refrained from looking out the window.

Louise had dined with them many times and Warren had never taken her home in a taxi, Often he only put her on the car at the corner. And now, unless it was really raining itslen felt that his ordering of a cab could only be to annoy her—a sort of disciplining reprobation for all economy which, somehow, always irritated which, somehow, always irritated nounced, and Helen went with them to the elevator. In spite of her effort to uppear cordial and natural, she said goodbre to Louise rather stiffly.

flaming checks. It was bardly full to blame Louise, but, with true feminine resentment. Helen decided it would be some time before she asked her to dinner again. (This is one of the regular features of The El Paso Herald.)

Gambling Concession Promises a Sensation

Vienna, Austria, Nov. 15.—There will shortly be brought up in the Hungarian parliament an affair which has already caused a great sensation and of which the Buda-Pest papers are making the most. It is asserted that the former Hungarian prime minister, by, you Lukacs, granted to the Allgelien Verkehrsbank a concession for a gambling establishment on Margareten island, which lies in the Danube, opposite the royal palace, and is state property. Five depattes of the National Labor party here, the papers say, receive 1,560,000 kronen for their services in getting the concession. The Verkehrsbank declares that it places considerable sums of money at the disposal of the government of Dr. Lukacs and certain deputies of the National Labor party in return for the concession. These sums amount to about $800,000. As the present prime minister, count Tisza, has annulled the concession granted by his predecessors, the Verkehrsbank intends to bring an action sgallist the Hungarian government for the recovery of the money.

La Mode Hennty Shop. Hairdressing, Facial Massage, Scalp Treatment, Soft Water Shampoos, Cos-metics of our own make. A full line of Switches and Hair Goods. Hair ornaments and up-to-date novelties for Christmas gifts. 103 Mesa Ave., Base-ment. Phone 1302. Mail orders given prompt attention.—Advertisement.

Hand painted plates $1.00, Orders taken. Phone 4298. 710 N. Santa Fe.

ow she slipped out of her drenched ENTRANTS NAMED IN WOMEN'S CLASSES

Saddle and Driving Events at Horse Show Will be Participated in by a Number of El Paso Women.

Several of the entrants of the women's saddle class in the horse show to be given November 22, have been named and will be: Mesdames Josephine Nations Morfit, U. S. Stewart, J. L. Marr and Misses Hildagards Sauer and Else Kohlberg The entrants for the women's driving combination class will be Mesdames U. S. Stewart, Josephine Nations Morfit, Misse Hildagards Sauer.
In the women's lumping class those named to date will be Mesdames U.
S. Stewart and the Misses Hildagards Sauer and Consuelo Weber. J. E. Anderson's horse will be shown in several of these entries.

front. But Helen pretended not to notice.

They had just finished their salad, when there was a pound of a key in the hall door, and Warren strode in.

"Why, dear!" Helen threw down her napkin and ran to kies him. "How dld you get back so soon! Have you had any dinner?"

"Yes, had dinner on the train. We got through earlier than I thought and I caught the 5:20."

He greeted Louise cordially, and Helen explained her negligee.

"You don't mean to say you were out in all that storm?" he demanded. "And you didn't take a taxi?"

"Oh, yes, I know dear, we should have taken one, but when we started I didn't dream it would rain so hard."
Warren turned to Louise with an impatient shrug.

"It's almost impossible to get Helen into a taxi. It's her pet economy, All the lime we were in Paris—cheap as cabs are here—I don't think she ever took one unless I was with her."

Nora now served the coffee in the library, and Helen left Louise to talk to Warren, while she looked after her clother.

The skirt had dried on the radiator Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The white house today officially denied the reported engagement of Miss Margaret Wilson in the following statement:

"The reported engagement of Miss Margaret Wilson and Dr. Gilbert Horrax is positively denied. Miss Wilson has never met or seen Dr. Horrax."

Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson's wedding gifts are to be mostly silver. Three magnificent dinner sets have been received aiready.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE FROM LLOYD OSBORNE, AN AUTHOR San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 15.—Lierd Shorne, stepson of Robert Louis Stev-nson, and himself notes as an author was such for divorce today by Mrs. Katherine D. Osborne. The suit is based on desertion.

Mrs. Osborne, in her complaint, asked a settlement of property rights which will give her $50,000, moluding the house which she now occupies with her two children. The house was built by Robert Louis Stevenson shortly before his death.

Osborne, the complaint says, is now Osborne, the complaint says, is now in Europe.

You Can't Tango if Your Toes Hurt. The Charity Ball, which marks the formal opening of the Winter social season, is now near at hand. In your preparations for this particular ball, and the others which will follow in quick succession, do not overlook the fact that dancing is enjoyable only when the dancers are free from comes. apartment and ran straight to the library window.

It not only had cleared, but now a bright half moon shore in the star-frosted sky. Under the street lamps the walks were already dry.

There was a preliminary chuz-chur and the taxi backed out from the curbing below and sped around the corner.

She turned from the window with firming cheeks. It was hardly fuir to hame Louise, but, with true feminine resentment. Helen decided it would be some time before ahe asked her to

Scott White & Co., 204 Mills St. Depot Pharmacy, Near Union Depot. (Advertisement)

It is none to early to remind you that an "Elite "halrdress is not the least important part of your Charity Rall costume. Elite Parlors, 216 Texas

CLEAN MILK--PURE MILK

Bottled in the country at our dairy where it is produced.
The milk is offered to the consumer with the knowledge that it fulfils every ethical and scientific demand that may be made on a milk supply. a milk supply. sult of over a quarter of a cen-tury spent in promotion of milk hygiene. It is the result of over 25 years of ceasless effort in the production of CLEAN MILK, a life of endeavor in which the EL PASO DAIRY CO. was the plo-neer and has always been the eer and has always been the leader.

Every drop of milk comes from a delry that is a model of suntation and system. Clean barns, healthy cows, sanitary dalrying methods, pure, wholesome milk, plus the safeguards of conscientions may be safeguards of conscientions. ous men who are experts in

CLEAN MILK-PURE MILK That's the whole story—there can be nothing better. EL PASO DAIRY CO. Not How Chenp But How Good

Pure Rich Milk AMERICAN DAIRY Look for the Red Neck Bottle PHONE 402

We Perfect - Remove - Correct Unshapely Noses, Outstanding Fars, Drooping Eyelids, Hellow Cheeks, Baggy Skin.

Pimples and Blackheads, Wrinkles and Scars, Smallpox Pittings, Warts, and Moles, Freckles, Superfluous Hair, Birth Marks, Frowns and Furrows, Enlarged Pores, Double Chin, Sallow Skin, Red Nose, GRACE A, BENSON

GRACE A. BENSON
Face Specialist of Chicago
oom 303 Herald Building
El Paso, Tex.

China Exhibit

Nov. 29 and 21st. Gustons Keramie Studio. Room 35. Buckler Bldg. Over the Elite.

Stuart's Christmas Special

Twelve presents in every dozen photos. Phone for Appointment

Stuart's Studio

Phone 476. 228 Mesa.

El Paso Optical Company, Inc. THE COLUMN

We Have Made 31,000 Pairs of Glasses in the Southwest.

For the reason, ask your neighbor.

EL PASO OPTICAL COMP'Y,

Inc. OPTICIANS to the SOUTHWEST

A Coiffure to Suit You--- Take Your Pick Posed Especially For This Page By Members of the Hippodrome Company---Fully Described By Olivette

The "Snood,"

Soft Pompadour.

The sternal feminine question is:

Thow shall I do my hair? Here are several very charming answers to it as given by five very smarming types of girlifood. And all this and more, too, is the line of his for hair more, too, is the line of his for hair great way be found by a little study.

The beauties of the Hippodrome the left has the beauties of the Hippodrome collifered to the ple and messes it in a great puff on the stately head—so adding a few inches the ple and messes it in a great puff on the stately head—so adding a few inches the provided figure's height—for one of the Hippodrome collifered to them is sure to approach in a fashion that well becomes ber approach the stately head—for approach in a fashion that well becomes ber approach the stately head—for approach in a fashion that we have the slender, wistful stately height.

And last we have the slender, wistful little lady who bands her hair low across for forehead and swirls it a —Olivette.

The Aristocrat.

The Piquant.

Miss Wistful.